The Kootenays have developed to such an extent that 5,000 HORSES are now REQUIRED to do their business, such as packing supplies, rawhiding ore, etc. The horses need feeding with hay and oats three times a day. Alberta farmers can supply them AT GOOD PRICES, but the owners of these horses are shrewd buyers and will not purchase what they don't want. They are satisfied with their OATS but they will not take our native hay at any price. The freight on hay to the principal Kootenay points is 35 cents per hundred pounds, and under ordinary circumstances the farmer should realize a good price for cultivated HAY even after paying $7 per TON freight.
The most suitable varieties for cultivation here are Brome and Native Rye grasses, choice varieties of which can be obtained at reasonable prices from THE BRACKMAN & KER MILLING CO. LTD. LIA, South Edmonton.

N. B.—We have Experimental Farm reports from both Indian Head and Brandon giving all information for the cultivation of these grasses. Call and see them.
The month of May is best time for sowing.

.Boots.

.AND.

.Shoes.

There is nothing that gives a person more pain than an ill-fitting boot. It always reminds you that there is something wrong.

We have known men (a woman would not do it) who would buy shoes that did not fit, because they were cheap. That is not economy, because one sacrifices five dollars' worth of comfort for a dollar or so.

We sell shoes that FIT, made after the shape of human feet.

Our range this season is the most complete we have ever shown, comprising the very newest lines produced.

For women we carry the celebrated "BELL" SHOES which is synonymous with comfort, style and durability. Try a pair.

Where will you take it?

This question often arises after you have consulted the best (not the cheapest) physician you know, and have received his prescription.

It should go to the best druggist you know—one who will use only the right kind of drugs, and will not try to fill it if he hasn't the right kind.

It should go to the druggist who will exercise the greatest care in getting the right drug, and the right quantity, and will go over his work several times to be sure he is right.

We conduct our prescription business as the best druggist should, and that is an answer to the question, "Where will you take it?"

Having obtained the services of a qualified druggist, you can depend upon having your prescriptions put up correctly at any hour of the day or night.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, APRIL 24TH, 1899.

SESSION NOTES.

OTTAWA, April 8, '99.

Friday was a dull day in the house. The debate on the address continued from the opposition side only with the Yukon feature left out. Henderson, Ganang, Powell and McAllister occupied the day, with very good speeches from their point of view; their only fault being that there was no particular reason apparent for their delivery. Hon. Mr. Paterson, minister of customs has the floor on Monday.

A drizzly rain is falling to day and the weather is perceptibly warmer. But still plenty of snow in sight.

Hon John Costigan has introduced a bill to charter a railway from Edmonton to Athabasca Landing, Lesser Slave lake and Peace River.

A deputation of lumbermen waited on the premier yesterday to ask for the imposition of duty of $2.00 a thousand on rough lumber, 25c on lath, and 30c on shingles. The premier replied that he would have to consult western agricultural interests before deciding as to changes in the present tariff on lumber.

OTTAWA, April 12, '99.

The fourth full week of the debate on the address was commenced on Monday by Hon. Wm. Paterson, minister of customs, who dealt first with the preferential feature of the tariff, and afterwards with its general result. The preferential feature had been alluded to by the opposition as a fraud, a delusion, a deception on the British dealer. This allegation was evidently based on the fact that the general tariff had been increased on some of the articles of chief import from England. The tariff was framed first in the interests of Canada, and second in the interests of reciprocal British trade. The needs of the Canadian revenue had to be considered. This led to the increase of the general tariff on some articles of import from Britain, but on these as on other articles the British exporter had the advantage of 25 per cent. over his United States competitor, and in all important cases paid an actually less duty than under the former tariff. For instance: On linseed oil which principally comes from England the duty had been 20%. It was now 25% with 25 per cent. off to Britain. An importer takes two invoices (American and British) of linseed oil of $100 each to the custom house. The duty is made up at 25 per cent.—$25 on each. The $25 must be paid on the American invoice. On the British invoice 25 per cent. is deducted from amount of duty leaving the amount to be paid on the British invoice $18.65 against $20 under the old tariff by the British exporter and $25 under the present tariff by the American exporter. The tariff was $1.25 less on the $100 of import to the British manufacturer than before and $6.25 less than to the American at the present time. There was surely no delusion about such a preference as this. The list of British imports numbered nearly 1,000, including very largely cotton goods. On nine of this number the duty was higher under the preferential clause than before. The total amount of imports of these nine items from Britain during '96 was $78,760 and the extra duty on this amount over what it would formerly have been would be about $3,000, while under the preferential tariff on $20,000,000 worth of imports from Britain the duty has been lowered.

In the interests of the Canadian consumer the duty on coal oil had been reduced a cent a gallon, from 6c to 5c, a reduction of 17 per cent. This meant a saving in duty paid by the Canadian people on the imports of 1897 of $80,000. The duty on flour had been reduced from 75c to 60c a barrel, and on wheat from 15c to 12c, a bushel. The opposition had charged that as a result of this reduction the country had been flooded with 35,780 barrels of United States flour and 58,000 bushels of United States wheat. But he found that under the tariff of '96 the Americans sent in 41,000 barrels of flour and 142,000 bushels of wheat. The duty on scrap iron has been reduced from $4.00 a ton to $1.00 a ton, and to Britain to 75c a ton. On pig iron the old duty was $4 a ton, now $2.50, and to Britain $1.87. On rolled iron or steel, beams, plates, etc., the duty was $10 a ton, and is now $7.00 a ton; or the duty was $10 a ton, it is now $8; or $6 to Britain. True the larger part of the iron imports came from the United States. (If there is any way of increasing the proportion coming from Britain it is by the preference given—and iron is the principal British export.) As in other cases the reduction had been made in the interests of the Canadian consumer, and the resultant increased activity of our manufactures of iron had amply justified the action. In the same interest the duties on axes, hay knives, hand rakes, feed cutters, fanning mills, hay feeders had been reduced from 35 per cent. to 25 per cent. and on portable engine, threshers, separators, horse powers, wind mill, farm rollers from 30 per cent. to 25 per cent. Files, adzes, hatchets, hammers, picks, etc., from 35 per cent. to 30 per cent. Saws, cutlery, etc., 32½ per cent. to 30 per cent. Seythes, snaths, hoes, forks and agricultural tools generally from 35 per cent. to 25 per cent. Cut nails from three-quarters cent a pound to half a cent a pound. Wire nails from 1c to ½c a pound. Wood screws from 45 per cent. to 35 per cent; wire fencing (not barbed) 37½ per cent. to 15 per cent. The imports of these articles were chiefly from the States, therefore only the reductions of the general tariff had been given. Any such articles coming from Britain were subject to the further reduction of 25 per cent.

Imports of linens and cottons were chiefly from Britain. To protect the revenue these articles had been advanced 5 per cent. over the old tariff. But being from Britain they were subject to the preferential provision. Therefore it was fair to compare the former duty with the present duty under the preference. Linen and damask towels were 25, are now 22½ per cent. Handkerchiefs were 30, are now 29½ per cent. Linens brown or bleached were 20, are now 18½c. Cotton fabrics printed, dyed, or colored were 30, now 26½ per cent. Of course the duty on such articles from the United States is one quarter higher.

Total value of goods from United States for consumption in Canada in 1896 $53,529,390, duty collected $7,767,99. Percentage of duty 14.51.

Total value of goods from the United States for consumption in Canada in 1898, $74,824,923. Duty collected $9,941,624. Percentage of duty 13.28.

Total value of goods from Britain for consumption in Canada in 1896 $32,824,505. Duty collected $7,358,514. Percentage of duty 22.42.

Total value of goods from Britain for consumption in Canada in 1898, $32,143,461. Duty $6,949,428. Percentage of duty 20.44.

The percentage of reduction if duty on imports from Britain under the new as compared with the old tariff was 1.98 per cent, and in the case of the United States 1.23 per cent., a difference of three-quarter of one per cent. in favor of Britain.

The percentage of duty paid on total imports levied in 1896 was 19.19. Apply that percentage to the imports of 1898 and compare the result with the amount actually paid and it will be seen that the people of Canada have saved in duties under the new as compared with the old tariff $2,080,555 in the year 1898. The percentage of duty on total imports in that year was 17.54. But the preference on British goods was then only 12½ per cent. For the current year it is 25 per cent, and he estimated that under this full reduction the total saving to the Canadian people would be fully $3,000,000 in the current year.

The minister claimed that the expansion of Canadian trade by $60,000,000 in the two full years the present administration had been in office—an increase of 25 per cent. in two years—was ample justification of the tariff policy which had been adopted, especially when it was remembered that the expansion of foreign trade had been accompanied and surpassed by an expansion of home trade. They had redeemed their at one time supposed to be impracticable promise of reducing the tariff without decreasing the prosperity or the revenues of the country. They had more than fulfilled their promise in that both prosperity and revenues had been increased.

Bergeron, of Beauharnois, followed the minister of customs on Monday last. Mr. Bergeron was deputy speaker in the last parliament, and defeated Hon. Mr. Tarte in Beauharnois at the general elections. He speaks English well and reviewed the liberal policy and practice at length—laying great stress on the conservative stock in trade of broken promises by the government. His speech was, however, chiefly remarkable for the violence of his attack on the minister of public works, whose record while a conservative he traced for the information of the house. Hon. M. Tarte was present, but was very ill at the time. He has been confined to his home during the rest of this week.

On Tuesday several members spoke in French. McDonald, of P. E. I. conservative, MacDonald of Huron, liberal, and Wilson, of Lennox, conservative, also spoke.

To-day McDougall, Cape Breton, opened the debate. In the course of his remarks he said that the premier had contributed a large sum, (suggesting $5,000 as the amount) towards Archbishop Langvin's fund in aid of separate schools in Manitoba. This he said was hush money, and as a Catholic, a member of parliament, (Continued on third page.)

Watches, Clocks, Jewellery, Silverware and Optical Goods

A WORD ABOUT REPAIRS.

There is no article that is so closely associated with us as a Watch. It regulates all our business and is either of the greatest value or of no value whatever. A watch must either be repaired properly or ruined, and hundreds of fine watches have been utterly ruined by being practised upon by unskilled workmen and apprentices. Having been at the Jewellery and Watch Repairing bench for the past 19 years in the most reliable shops in some of the largest cities of EUROPE, UNITED STATES and CANADA, from which I have received diplomas and excellent references for my skilled mechanical work, which proves that I am sufficiently master of my trade, I make this class of work a distinct feature and give it my most scrupulous attention. All work entrusted to my care will be repaired expertly and in a superior manner, accompanied with a guarantee for twelve months, and I shall do my utmost to gain the confidence of all who favor me with their patronage.

One trial will prove.
Hoping to have a call from you, I remain,
Yours respectfully,

S. NANKIN, Practical Watchmaker and Jeweller.

A Blessing from God and Holy Tongue.

The greatest scientific discovery of a century has just been made in Tropical Polynesia, on the Island of Tongatapu, or Holy Tonga, in the South Sea. From investigations and experiments conducted by the medical authorities among the tropical forests, a preparation, known to the natives for years, and valued by them as a profound secret, was found possessing a marvelous influence on the human system in health and disease. It is known to the natives of the Friendly Islands as Mamanu. It is a delightful, safe, and marvelous cure for all the diseases of the blood and system with which cells are made to be irritated or life waste; it cures Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Consumption, creates prodigious energy, invigorates the system, restores power, and vital force; in a few days it restores and recuperates the very low, weak and wasted given up by the patient, and in a few hours it will remove the dry, black coating from the tongue of half unconscious cases, putting them back to life in a few days. Invalids who have been bed ridden for years gain five pounds a week, and eat three meals a day. Mamanu is a powerful, wasted to skeleton, with yellow sputa, hectic, and night sweats, have been cured from one to three months. Mamanu has cured hundreds of such cases when all the best directed efforts of science has failed. It is a true and powerful remedy in all recuperating cases of very low vitality than all known means. In six weeks it will cure half the cases in asthma, heart disease, rheumatism, frightful ulcers, and all diseases the result of impure blood or sluggish circulation. It is a powerful, invigorates and cures the worst cough in a few days. Cures enlarged tonsils, adenoids, catarrh, and increases the force of the voice. For the weak, puny children it acts like magic, transforming them into veritable robust, energetic, great courage, confidence, strengthens the voice, animates the face, clears the skin, exhilarates the mind and body, produces strong physiological action, gives prodigious strength to the heart, shows the rapid pulse, and increases the working power to a marvelous degree. It sets simultaneously on the stomach, liver, heart, lungs, and through the cells and absorbents to every part of the human economy, imparting strength, vigor and a pleasant sensation of satisfaction to the mind and body. All parts and organs of the human system are thus wonderfully rejuvenating process. It wins wonders daily, exhilarates and tones, produces sound refreshing sleep at night.

The above is not exaggerated or overdrawn, it has been thoroughly tested among natives and Europeans (whites) by the government medical officers during the past three years. This is a entirely new remedy, its use being known to physicians. A sample package will be sent to any part of the world, carriage prepaid, on receipt of five shillings ($1.25). Amounts sufficient for the most inveterate cases now guinea ($5). In writing, describe the case, as well as a description of the individual requiring it. Send money by registered letter, or by check, or by bank draft, or by postal note, or send draft on London, Australia or New Zealand bank. Address

DR. MACLENNAN,
Chief of the medical department for the government of Tonga.

SESSION NOTES.

and as a citizen he demanded to know where the money came from. He declared that the school question was not settled.

Frost, liberal, of Frost & Wood, agricultural implement makers of Smith Falls, spoke strongly supporting the tariff policy of the government. His extremely laudatory remarks might lead to the impression that the agricultural implement men had been getting the best end of the deal under the tariff.

McLennan, conservative, followed at great length. He took to prophesy, as to the destruction of the government, and recalled the Mackenzie reign when the liberals had a majority of nearly 100, and won every bye-election, and yet were swept out of power at the end of five years.

As the debate develops it became apparent that the opposition strongly believe, and some of the liberals suspect, that a general election is to follow the present session. Hence the desire to get on record in Hansard in support of or in opposition to the general policy of the government. It is even suggested that the opposition propose by simply talking right along to prevent a dissolution during the coming summer, at any rate prevent the passage of the redistribution bill. It is also becoming more apparent every day that they are acting without any other general fixed policy. Their course is simply individual opposition to the government. Their forces are not concentrated on any certain point and no alternative policy is offered on any subject.

The papers announce that the government will take up the Pacific cable project at the present session. Canada is to contribute a guarantee of somewhat less than one-third of the interest on the total cost. Australia and Britain take care of the remainder. The cable to be under joint control of the government's contributing.

The committee appointed at the conference of members with the Dominion alliance to consider the best course to take in recognition of the result of the plebiscite decided yesterday that the result of the vote did not warrant the enactment of prohibitory legislation. A minority will report the opposite conclusion to the alliance meeting to be called shortly.

LOCAL IMPROVEMENT DISTRICTS.

The following information regarding statute labor districts was given in the assembly by the commissioner of public works, J. H. Ross. There are at present in existence 414 local improvement districts. During the past year the following work had been done: $10,373.15 had been collected for taxes on lands owned by companies or other non-resident owners; for commutation 488 miles of road were graded, 272 miles of road cleared, 982 miles of fire guard plowed, 95 bridges were built, 78 bridges were repaired, 187 culverts built, 74 culverts repaired, 12 dams built, 29 dams repaired, 1,997 yards of corduroy made, 24,447 yards were worked in commutation of local improvement tax, and 820 holes, old wells and cellars filled. Streets were improved at Broadview, Alameda, Lumsden, South Edmonton, Pincher Creek and Wetaskiwin.

FROM THE PEACE.

W. Manford, of Milwaukee, came in from the Peace river last night and leaves in the morning for his home in the States. Mr. Manford was a member of a prospecting party, but left the others and went into winter camp on the bank of the Peace, about 100 miles above the Crossing, where he spent the winter. Occasional parties of Indians, who came down the river on hunting trips, reported a large number of men at St. John, and great sickness from scurvy. They thought that some had died, but were not sure. Other Indians had reported to them that white men farther west, through the mountains, had found plenty of gold in the river bank and were washing it out all fall until the snow fell. The name of the river was not known, but as near as Mr. Manford could ascertain it must have been the Black river. There were some fifteen white men working on it. After the frost set in they had started drift mining and tunnelling, though with what success was not known.

PLAINDECKER: M. Steffen and family, who arrived from South Dakota on Friday last, brought with them five cars of machinery, stock and effects. Among the machinery are three traction engines, one Buffalo Pitts separator, a hay loader and other machines for extensive farming operations.

MARY SCHULKE, late employee of the Queen's Hotel, was brought back from Calgary on Friday on a charge of forging her employer's name to a cheque for $10. She first tried to cash the cheque at the bank, but the signature looked suspicious and payment was refused. After she succeeded in passing it at W. J. Walker's store, and went south the following morning. A telegram was sent to Calgary and she was arrested and brought back. The case came up at 2 o'clock to-day at the police barracks before C. W. Gairdner, J. P., and has not been concluded yet.

MOPPER CO.
For the last four nights the McPhee Co. have been playing to big houses in the Robertson Hall. On Friday "East Lynne" was presented and on Saturday, "Temptation of Money," with "Uncle Tom's Cabin," as a matinee. That the company was appreciated was shown by the liberal patronage extended to them. The attendance at the matinee was a record breaker for matinees. The objectionable after using feature was eliminated after the first performance.

The company were to play here to-night, but on account of difficulty in making train connection will play in South Edmonton instead.

A TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

W. P. Rowland and Lottie Brunette, his affianced wife, both of Edmonton, committed suicide here on Friday night, by taking strychnine. The first intimation the public had of the terrible affair was when word was brought to Robertson Hall where some of the relatives of the deceased were attending a performance of East Lynne. It appears that about nine o'clock on Friday evening Rowland entered the Kenneth McDonald's house in the east end of town, acting in a very peculiar manner. He had no shoes or hat on and appeared almost out of his mind. He would not remain and when interrogated as to what was the matter returned some irrational answer, and left the house again immediately. So strange was his conduct that the McDonalds were alarmed and sent for a doctor and his mother, who lived about a quarter of a mile away. In a short time Rowland again returned, this time in an almost dying condition. He had only time to state before he died that he had taken strychnine, that 'his girl was dead,' they had poisoned themselves, and her body was lying in the field about a quarter of a mile away. He had taken the first spoonful and she the second. She had died almost immediately, but he had had to take another dose. Word was once to the mounted police and a search party composed of Insp. Snyder, Sergt. Aston and town constables Pattison and Campbell started out to search the field for Lottie Brunette. In a bluff, just where he had said, they found her corpse. She was lying partly on her side and face and had apparently died quickly and painlessly. A waterproof mounds sheet and a bright colored blanket had been spread underneath the trees, and on these she lay. Her shoes and hat had been removed and were set neatly beside her, and about 25 feet away a small heavy glass bottle, empty, but corked, was found. To the inside stuck a number of crystals of half dissolved strychnine. A small label with the words "strychnine" was the only mark on the bottle.

No inquest was held as numerous letters written by the two explained the reason and proved that the deed was premeditated. She was a Catholic, he a Protestant, and strong objections had apparently been made to their marriage. In their last letters they refer to these objections and state that if they cannot live together they will die together. In the afternoon Rowland had taken the blanket and canvas sheet out to the bluff and after that they were seen on the street together seemingly happy and in the best of spirits. He was about 32 and she 21 years of age. Both were well known here. He had been on several trips through the north with the police patrols as a special. Was a smart, good looking, pleasantly built young fellow, sober and industrious and even at the time of committing the rash and fatal act his wagons were loaded with freight for the Landing, and he was to start out the next day. He leaves a mother and several brothers and sisters all in Edmonton. Miss Brunette was an unusually good looking and sensible girl, having very dark hair and eyes. She leaves a father, Phileas A. R. Brunette, of St. Albert, and a sister.

W. P. Rowland's funeral took place yesterday to the Edmonton cemetery, the body being followed to the grave by a very large number of friends of the afflicted family, to whom the sincere sympathy of the community is extended. Mrs. Rowland, mother of the deceased, lies in a very dangerous condition as a result of the terrible shock, and Archie, a brother of W. P. Rowland, was so affected by the affair that the police were compelled to take him in charge to prevent him doing damage to himself.

The body of Lottie Brunette was interred at St. Albert on Saturday night.

The scene of the tragedy, a swampy willow bluff about a mile northeast from town, on the Rowland property, was yesterday visited by hundreds of people. The spot is an unfrequented one and particularly by desolate looking at this season of the year.

An inquest would have been held on the remains of Lottie Brunette to ascertain more fully the manner in which she met her death, and the nature of the poison taken, but her father did not desire the body disturbed. As the ends of justice could not in any way have been furthered, both of the parties implicated being dead, the authorities let the matter drop, but the department at Ottawa have been advised of all the facts as known, and if they consider an inquest advisable will telegraph instructions, when the body will be disinterred and a post mortem examination made.

CRICKET CLUB.
At the general meeting of the cricket club held last Friday, the following resolutions were made: Patrons, P. Oliver and Rev. H. A. Gray; president, Alex. Taylor; Vice-president, W. S. Edmonson; Committee: Messrs. Aldridge, W. H. McMahon, T. F. Alanson, A. E. Pattison and Sgt. Aston; Captain, W. Richardson; Secretary, E. Slocock.

The report presented at the meeting by the secretary was quite satisfactory, with a membership roll of fifty one, and a balance on hand of $6 from last season. Tuesday and Friday were chosen as the regular practice nights beginning at 7:30 as last year. It was also decided that the membership subscription should remain the same.

A committee meeting was arranged for Tuesday next.

TURKISH RUG AND CARPET CLEANING PROCESS

T. J. FURNIVAL, Manager.

I respectfully call your attention to our new cleaning process, the only method in existence which will take Grease Spots, Paint, Coal Dust, Lamp Black, Soot and Stains out of Carpets. That carpets cleaned by this process will remain clean as long as new carpet, has been fully tested; that it is absolutely MOTH PROOF and will restore the colors; that it is a disinfectant, rendering the carpets clean and healthy when sickness or disease has been in the room. We ask a candid investigation of our work.

Our process of cleaning is no longer an experiment, but a demonstrated success since 1884. It raises the nap and leaves it soft like new, and restores the lustre of their original brilliancy. It covers everything and is a perfect cleaner. Drop us a card or leave orders at Potter & McDonald's and we will be pleased to call and show you samples.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

In the assembly on the 17th J. H. Ross, minister of public works, moved the second reading of a bill to amend the local improvement ordinance. He explained that it was to meet the wants of outlying districts where the conditions were different from the existing districts of seventy-two square miles, and where no person had to go more than three miles to perform his statute labor. The bill therefore gave powers to the larger areas to be framed into districts. It was also provided that the tax should not be commutable by labor as in the other districts but should be paid in money. The over-seer too, would be appointed, not elected, on account of the difficulty of holding meetings in such districts.

Mr. Rosenrold moved the second reading of a bill to legalize fences in townships 46 to 50, although they might not have a top rail. The settlers in the township wished the change because there was great difficulty in getting posts and rails, and they would, by doing away with the top rail, be able to put the posts wider apart, and thus save on both posts and rails. The bill passed the second reading.

Mr. Bulyea, minister of agriculture, moved the second reading of a bill to amend the law respecting noxious weeds. It provided that the cost of destroying weeds on vacant lands, whose owners are absent, should be a charge on the land, and recoverable in the same way as charges under the local improvement ordinance. The bill was read a second time. Mr. Bulyea also moved the second reading of a bill to require owners of threshers and other machines to guard against accidents. Its provisions are similar to the law in Ontario and the other provinces. The second reading was agreed to.

NEW SETTLERS.

In addition to those already mentioned the following settlers arrived on Monday last: James Carrol, Kansas; R. Von Lettenenthal, A. W. Craig, Mike Fitzpatrick, Charles Froge, Emil Krause, Erik Skjel, South Dakota; Ole Thorbornson (5), Norway; George Ernest, South Dakota; Adam Aicher (5), Asa Stone (2), Minnesota; Wm. Gibson, Ontario; W. T. Rundell, Illinois; 26 German Canadians.

GREAT SLAVE LAKE COLONY.

Chicago "Topics" of the 15th, says: Mr. R. M. Springer is now organizing, by authority of the Canadian government, a large colony composed of farmers, ranchmen, miners, carpenters and laborers, with which it is proposed to locate in the vicinity of Great Slave lake. It is evident that thousands will take up a permanent residence in that section of the north during the next two or three years, as no less than three Chicago companies and others from London, England, and elsewhere are going in there this season with stamping machines, smelters, etc.

LACOMBE

The annual shipment of cattle took place on the 12th, when as usual a vast amount of money was paid out. W. Puffer shipped to P. Burns 19 car loads averaging about 20 to a car and about $40 each, making about $15,000. Sparrow shipped to Gordon & Ironside 75 head of cattle paying out about $3,000. Gilmour shipped about 20 head paying about $800. The whole netted over $18,000, showing that cattle raising has become quite profitable. The area of land over which these cattle come to be sold extends a great many miles in the country making it quite an undertaking for the buyers. Mr. Puffer has been in the business several years and understands just where to go and loses no time in going. The boys have commenced the foot ball season regardless of the mud. G. Jamieson and W. Puffer were in Calgary on business last week. Mrs. James Bourne passed away on the 10th, after a very serious illness. She leaves only one child. Mrs. Bourne is a native of Michigan and has only been in this country a very short time. The infant son of D. Govrley also died on the 10th and was buried on the 12th by the Rev. M. White. April 19 '99.
